

Akademie Schloss Solitude
August 5 - 22, 2011

Summer Academy 2011

International Master Class for Young Composers

Every two years since 2003,

the public foundation and residency program Akademie Schloss Solitude (Stuttgart, Germany) hosts a summer master class for young composers.

The fourth Summer Academy will take place from August 5–22, 2011.

Sixteen composers at various stages in their work will be chosen to participate. During the Summer Academy, participants will meet with faculty for individual lessons, meet each other one-on-one to discuss their work, and partake in the evening presentations, where each composer introduces and discusses his or her work with the entire group.

The Freiburg-based Ensemble SurPlus will be in residence during the second half of the Summer Academy to prepare and perform two public concerts of the participants' compositions held at the end of the course. There will also be sessions of musical analysis with the faculty, workshops on notation and performance practice with SurPlus members, as well as guest presentations. The participants can enjoy the beautiful natural surroundings of the Akademie Schloss Solitude while benefiting from interactions with other artists present in this multidisciplinary environment. The permanent faculty of the Academy is Chaya Czernowin and Steven Kazuo Takasugi. In 2011 they will be joined by Amnon Wolman.

Application forms can be requested from

July 15, 2010 until December 1, 2010

stating the complete address:

Akademie Schloss Solitude

Marieanne Roth

Solitude 3

70197 Stuttgart, Germany

Tel. +49 (0)711 99 61 94 74

Fax +49 (0)711 99 61 95 0

E-Mail: summeracademy@akademie-solitude.de

www.akademie-solitude.de

Fee: 800 Euro (includes room and meals). Some scholarships, partial scholarships, and need-based scholarships are available.

Supported by funds from the Harvard University (Department of Music) and the Ministry of Science, Research and the Arts of the State of Baden-Württemberg.